

3 Vital Truths About Supernatural Healing

It sounds absurd, but I have come to the realization that a large portion of the body of Christ has this twisted belief that God is cruel and steals life and our loved ones from us.

Do you feel confused about what to believe concerning healing? Many people are unsure these days about what to believe anymore. And rightly so. When we remove the standard of God's Word, and teach from human opinion and experience instead of what God says concerning healing then, yes, people will be confused about healing.

I remember many years ago, I did not have the revelation that it was God's will to heal. Even though I heard some amazing healing testimonies, I just didn't understand that it was for all of God's people.

I can look back into my memory and see myself on my knees in our living room begging, pleading and even bargaining with God and making desperate promises that if He would spare the life of my child and allow him to be born full-term that I would never have another child. It sounds absurd, but I have come to the realization that a large portion of the body of Christ has this twisted belief that God is cruel and steals life and our loved ones from us.

But when we choose to make God's Word our standard, we eliminate doubt and confusion and give people a spiritual foundation on which to base their faith so that they can believe and receive their supernatural healing from the Lord.

We are instructed in Ephesians 6:14 to gird our waist with truth. It is always our responsibility to study the Word of truth and to wrap our lives within it. This will keep the contamination of false doctrine out and the security of God's truth in.

There are many Scriptures in both the Old Testament and the New Testament that support supernatural healing, but I will give you just three for now to start you on your journey of truth about healing.

- “Surely he has borne our grief and carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and by his stripes we are healed” (Is. 53:4-5).
- “Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, even as your soul is well” (3 John 1:2).
- “When He was in a certain city, a man full of leprosy, upon seeing Jesus, fell on his face and begged Him, ‘Lord, if You will, You can make me clean.’ He reached out His hand and touched him, saying, ‘I will. Be clean.’ And immediately the leprosy left him” (Luke 5:12-13).
