

5 Ways President Trump Is Accelerating End-Times Events

While some people may believe President Donald Trump represents a reprieve on God's judgment ahead of the end times, newscaster William Koenig says the president may actually be doing the opposite.

"What's interesting to me is I think President Trump, maybe his most significant role is acceleration of final-day events having to do with Iran, Russia, the whole Middle East, his relationship with state of Israel and also North Korea and dealing, contending with that," Koenig tells the Jim Bakker Show.

"All our presidents, especially back to Franklin Roosevelt, have had a significant final-day prophetic role."

Watch the video to see more.