

5-Year-Old Prays in Prophetic Fulfillment in Joel 2

Whoa!

While most kids might duck their heads when their Sunday school teacher asks for volunteers to pray, this little boy stepped up to the plate.

The moment 5-year-old Isaiah Jackson was handed the microphone at T.D. Jakes' Potter's House Church, he closed his eyes, opened his mouth and let the Spirit flow out.

"I decree and declare God you granted the children supernatural strength and the ability to fight a good fight of faith," Isaiah says. "I decree and declare they are qualified to share in Jesus' inheritance!"

Watch the video to see more.