

53 Clichés Every Christian Single Hears at Church

Being single at church can be difficult. Christian comedian John Felts knows. He's put together this hilarious video of comments every single Christian has heard a million times. If you're thinking about saying any of these things to your single friend, think again.