

6,000 Experience Revival at Mississippi State University

Students at Mississippi State University say their lives are forever changed after experiencing “God’s love at work” during a massive worship event Monday.

Unite US reports that nearly 6,000 students worshipped together at Humphrey Coliseum on Oct.1.

The night was marked by powerful prayer, repentance, water baptisms and an atmosphere “like heaven.”

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

“Jesus met us tonight in Humphrey Coliseum,” the group wrote on Instagram. “Nearly 6,000 students worshipped together, confessed to sin that had been holding them back, and experienced freedom that can only be found in Him.”

“We are celebrating with every single student who took a step toward Jesus tonight, and believe this is only the beginning,” Unite US added in the post. “Thank you, Jesus, for how You are moving in this generation!”