

7 Amazing Prophetic Words From Isaiah 61

In 24 End Time Prophecies Podcast with Pastor and Author Rick Blomgren on the Charisma Podcast Network, I share over four decades of research and shatter antiquated misconceptions regarding the end times. I offer glorious insights into God's incredible, specific 24 end-time prophecies—12 of which have already been fulfilled, 12 about to arrive. I offer a version that is enlightening and magnificent, representing the grandeur and glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

In all my decades of study, I have relied on the Holy Spirit to tell me what God is planning for the last days. In 1 Thessalonians 4:16, I wondered why God tells us Jesus comes with a shout when He first returns in the clouds; why not tell us directly that Jesus is calling us up at the rapture? I now know why God wants us to use and research the entire Bible for answers. I found the answer to this question in Isaiah 61, and it is breathtaking! I started my new podcast series on June 1, 2021, providing a detailed breakdown of what I found directly out of God's word in Isaiah 61 regarding the shout by Jesus.

In my first episode, I shared seven amazing prophetic words in Isaiah 61 that completely alter the way we are to look at end-times prophecies in incredible ways. These seven words are the second of three announcements that God the Father has appointed Jesus to make at different times in history. We learn in the Bible that Jesus made the first announcement at the beginning of His initial earthly ministry, per Luke 4:16-21. He is appointed by God the Father to make the second announcement when He next arrives in the clouds. What He announces is surprising: It is not the rapture; however, right after the shout by Jesus, the rapture announcement happens immediately by the voice of a second entity that God tells us comes with Jesus in the clouds. This podcast episode is a brief 23 minutes long; it is incredibly exciting and explains the way believers are to look at end-times prophecies.

I offer two books on God's 24 end-times prophecies. The first, my novel The Pastor of the Last Days, is an easy and exciting read. In two 4-hour sessions on a weekend, you can become well versed in all 24 end-times events. The final chapter will give you goosebumps! My second book, Stunned, is highly detailed, using history, world events and over 800 Bible verses providing strong evidence that the 24-prophecy model is fixed on firm biblical ground. Also, at our Revere Today Ministries website, , I offer free download of the 24 Prophecy Road Map along with the first chapters of both my books.

We live in an incredible moment in history. God is telling us an amazing story about what has already been fulfilled and what is about to arrive. It is all fantastic news for those of us that love and place all our trust in Jesus the Christ, our Messiah. {eoa}
