

A Coming Judgment No Man Has Ever Seen Before

God's courthouse is now in session, which means America is ripe for judgment, says Pastor Mark Biltz.

The pastor points to Rosh Hashana, or the biblical celebration of opening the gates, for his remarks. This year, the Jewish holiday marked the end of the 2015 Shemitah, with the Super Shemitah expected to begin on Yom Kippur, or the closing of the gates.

"Well, we have to understand, God uses signs according to His calendar," Biltz says. "And if we're not on his calendar, we're not going to understand the sign."

And what's to come has Jim Bakker tearful and sleepless.

Watch the video to see what the two expect.