

“A Word for Entrepreneurs with Kingdom Assignments”

I have this vision God gave me in my spirit and I'm supposed to release it over all of you. I see a hot air balloon and it's going higher than most ever do. Some of you are in the basket beneath it soaring through the air! You have a new perspective and fresh insights on things that God has shown you, but you've doubted it was Him or you're afraid to share it with anyone because when you've done this in the past you've been mocked, belittled or even called stupid. Someone has fed you misquotes of Scripture like, “If you don't use your faith you'll lose it,” or “If you don't use what He gave you He'll take things away from you.” Some have even threatened you with lies like, “God can use anyone He wants and He'll replace you if you don't do this our way.”

This intimidation is from Hell and it's been sent to make you hide, question yourself or worse yet, to get you working hundreds of hours without pay, spinning your wheels with people who, one minute, act like you're a blessing, and the next minute they're intimidating you, even threatening you. God says that you did NOT mishear Him and you don't have to listen to these intimidating and discrediting lies. He wants to take you up higher to new realms with new people you can trust.

When you succeed the entire Kingdom of Heaven succeeds and God has given you these insights and wisdom because He trusts you. It's important for you to write everything down; don't question or think it's silly because you don't have the answers yet, or you don't have support around you yet. It will come.

This season is for you to come up higher, redirect your flight path and go to new places. I speak shalom from Heaven over you. Forgive the people who've threatened you and intimidated you. Don't isolate yourself. God is sending you reinforcements; new friends and people you can trust. Follow your gut. Until then, go higher.

Keep flying with God. You're doing great and the threats weren't true. God has your back. He's preparing a way. I pray courage and blessing over you!
