

Abortionist Gosnell Uses Bible to Support His House of Horrors

A jury convicted abortionist Kermit Gosnell of murder for his late-term abortions, but Gosnell claims the Bible defends his actions.

“Until I really completed my first Genesis through Revelation reading of the Bible, which I did since I was incarcerated, I really didn’t feel as comfortable as I am,” Gosnell says. “I think it’s Genesis 2:7 (that) expresses the breath of life as the beginning of life. That God breathed breath, breathed life into Adam. The Bible to me is very clear that life does not happen until breath.”

Except Gosnell wasn’t an “average” abortion doctor, Dr. Michael Brown says.

Here’s why.
