

Actor Chris Pratt Honored Christ With Incredible Easter Tribute

It started with his finger angled above a hill and concluded with three friends gathered at the symbolic feet of Jesus.

Chris Pratt's Easter tribute to Christ was nothing short of stunning in a series of Instagram posts of the actor and his buddies erecting a cross.

"Pick the spot," Pratt captioned the first photo followed by one of two men bearing a cross on their backs as they "haul it."

The third was of the friends as they "stop for a break," while the fourth showed Pratt hacking shrubbery to "dig the hole."

Next, Pratt worked with his friends to "Get it level," followed by steps to "Cement it in."

Fans applauded his efforts.

"You are awesome!" wrote one fan. "Thankyou for standing up for your faith!"

Another posted: "Beautiful. Praise God!"

Another: "Seriously, I thought I couldn't like you anymore than I already do, but now I am even more amazed! With all that is happening in the world, it is good that someone in Hollywood knows how to be an example to others and the true meaning in life and can show the truth against others who want to cover it up! My hat is off to you @prattprattpratt!"
