

Acts 29 Pastor Says This Is Why So Many Christian Men Are Falling Into Sin

There's a simple reason Christian men are easily falling into sin these days—at least according to Matt Chandler, lead pastor of teaching at the Village Church in Flower Mound, Texas, and president of the Acts 29 Network.

This one reason has Chandler provoked in spirit, and he's not afraid to share why.

"Why are men going to bed these days with so much energy?" he asks.

In Chandler's view, men who belong to Jesus should live in such a way that they're exhausted by the time their heads hit the pillow.

Watch the video to see what that looks like.