

AFA Places Full-Page Newspaper Message to Supreme Court in WashPo

Today, the American Family Association placed a full-page newspaper message to the Supreme Court in the Washington Post.

Our nation is at its most critical crossroad in the history of America, as the Supreme Court prepares to hear the case, and then deliver their opinion, on the biblical sanctity of marriage.

Our message is one of truth, yet very simple:

God, in His great wisdom, profoundly established the institution of marriage as only between one man and one woman.

We urge the Court to adjudicate rightly that which is God's alone to decide.

Click here to see the ad.