

After Guilty Verdict, Should Christians Still Support Donald Trump?

“How can you follow Jesus and Donald Trump?” Many are not following a man; they are helping shape a movement.

A better, biblical question to ask is this: What direction is the country heading?

The short answer to the original question is “Absolutely, especially after a sham trial that resembles Venezuela more than America.”

Confrontation Over Character

If a leader lacks Christian character but is helping to point the nation back to God, is that a bad thing? If they are serving as a terror to terrorists and making America secure, is that a bad thing?

If they are honoring hard work and minimizing handouts, is that a bad thing? If they are fighting the global agenda to enslave America, is that a bad thing?

God doesn't judge a nation based on one man's character; He judges it based on the spiritual health of its people—from corrupt Balaam to ungodly kings in the Old Testament—if they direct the people back to God, it can be a good thing.
