

Agree With God

If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. —John 15:7

The Bible is God's Word to us. It is the operator's manual, given to mortal men by an eternal God. God and His Word are alive and inseparable. His Word does not change, nor can it fail, nor will it return unto Him without accomplishing what it was sent to do (Isaiah 55:11).

When you confess what God's Word says about you, you are agreeing that what He has said concerning you is true. There is infinite power in that agreement.

Decree that you have what God says you have. Proclaim that you are who God says you are. God said He would hasten after His Word to perform it, to bring it to pass in your life.

When you speak the Word, angels hearken to that command (Psalm 103:20), and all of heaven will back you up. You have God's written guarantee.

God, i believe what you said in the Word.
I know that your word is life and truth.
I will command all that you have spoken by the power of your spirit. Amen.
