

America's Cup of Iniquity Runs Over

America's reprieve from judgment may run out very soon.

"In the halls of justice, they hold scales, so it's like a tipping point of judgment," John Shorey says. "But I've also heard that the cup of iniquity is full. And I believe that the cup of iniquity's been being filled for decades, and it's at that overflowing point and judgment is going to come to America."

"Is America in Bible prophecy?" Shorey asks. "Is it ordained that America will step down from being ordained as the world's No. 1 superpower?"
