

America's 'Nineveh Moment' Foreseen by Billy Graham, a Call for Repentance and Revival: An Open Letter to President Trump

On the cusp of the most critical election in our nation's history, recent revelations—coming from voices such as Bob Jones' wife and Brandon Biggs—reinforce what God has placed on my heart: a call for America to turn back to God, led by President Donald Trump. This is the message of my new book, "The Trump Code," and also the basis of an open letter I sent to Trump, along with a video, urging him to call our nation to prayer, repentance and revival.

Over a decade ago, I had the rare opportunity to interview the late Rev. Billy Graham. The great evangelist's words from that interview still resonate today. Reflecting on the story of Jonah and Nineveh, he said, "When God sent the prophet Jonah to Nineveh to warn them of impending judgment, the king and the people repented, and God spared the city. I believe the same thing can happen again today, this time in America."

Like ancient Nineveh, America faces judgment, and like Nineveh, we have a choice: We can humble ourselves, repent and seek God's mercy, or we can face the consequences of our continued turning away from Him.

In the video I recorded last week, I called on Trump to lead this charge, to be a modern-day king of Nineveh, urging Americans to return to God before it's too late. This message aligns with what Bob Jones' wife recently shared. In a bold prophetic revelation, she said the Lord told her that Trump would be reelected and, following his reelection, would call the nation to repentance. This prophecy is a profound, direct confirmation of the message of “The Trump Code” and the video plea I recorded: America’s path forward is one of repentance, and Trump may be the one chosen to lead us on this journey.

A Heartfelt Plea to President Trump

On Oct. 28, only days before the election, I sent an open letter to Trump, urging him to heed this prophetic call and lead our nation in repentance. In the letter, I reminded him of the Nineveh moment in which we find ourselves, quoting from 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NIV), a verse that reveals the path to national healing: “If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and heal their land.”
