

An End-Time Take on the Kim Davis Drama

Kentucky county clerk Kim Davis was jailed last week for refusing to issue a same-sex marriage license to a gay couple.

Although we've seen bakers and pizza shop owners and florists face financial penalties and even death threats for refusing to service gay weddings, the jailing of Davis for taking a stand on the Word of God is a first in America on the same-sex marriage issue.

What does this mean?

Ricky Scaparo, founder of End Time Headlines, along with myself and my co-founder Ryan LeStrange, discussed the implications and gave our insights regarding how Christians should respond.

This is worth the watch.
