

Arab Christians Boo Ted Cruz for Pro-Israel Remarks

A group of Middle-Eastern Christians booed Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, off the stage after speaking in support of Israel at an event in Washington, D.C. The event, sponsored by a group called In Defense of Christians, was billed as a gathering of Middle-Eastern Christian leaders. They were trying to raise awareness about the threat to Arab minorities by Islamic terrorists. Cruz spoke about Christian solidarity with Israel and standing against terrorist groups such as ISIS. But some in the crowd were Palestinian Christian supporters of the Syrian government and even the terrorist group Hezbollah. "Those who hate Israel hate America," Cruz began before being interrupted by jeering from the audience. "My heart weeps that the men and women here will not stand in solidarity with Jews and Christians alike who are persecuted by radicals," he responded. At one point, the moderator interrupted, saying, "Please, respect for dialogue. Respect. Please, we're in America." Undeterred, Cruz said, "If you will not stand with Israel and the Jews, then I will not stand with you. Thank you, and God bless you." Click here to watch the full video.
