

Are You Listening More to Your Phone Than to the Holy Spirit?

Six teens sat at a table, each enjoying a milkshake. Several shifted in their seats every once in a while. But not one of them put down their phones.

What would the conversation have been like if they had stopped texting?

Listen as Dr. Steve Greene shares what the Lord taught him as he observed these six teenagers at a restaurant one day. Discover the keys to being present wherever you are and staying in tune with the Holy Spirit.
