

Astonishing Kim Clement Prophecies on Trump Discovered After 20 Years

New Kim Clement prophecies on Donald Trump have been released after they were first spoken 20 years ago.

In a special message, Clement's daughter, Donné Clement Petruska released prophetic messages that her father gave back in 2004, 2005 and 2009 that would relate to the assassination attempt on Donald Trump.

Clement was known for the accurate prophecies, especially in regards to ones about the "trumpet" being raised up before Trump ever came into office. These prophecies perfectly described Trump and his characteristics. Notably, Clement died before Trump was elected president back in 2016.

In the July 31, 2004 prophecy from Clement that Donné shared during a new Codebreakers livestream, there are some uncanny details of this prophecy and what happened with this presidential assassination attempt.

"The Spirit of the Lord says, 'There shall be one assassination attempt that will endeavor to destroy the plans that I have for this nation,'" Clement's prophecy reads.

"Tonight there are major forces of darkness that have endeavored to bring to nothing, this nation. But I will supply a very special weapon to this nation which shall have the ability to see activities of the enemies in a very peculiar manner. This night is a Saturday night. I require that my people stand in agreement with the prophet as he prophesies resurrection to America," the prophecy concludes.

This prophecy specifically mentions that this assassination attempt would take place on a Saturday night, which is when Trump was shot. This word was given in July for an event almost exactly twenty years to the date in the future. It also has unique parallels to Clements "strange July" prophecy, which speaks of a shaking for both Democrats and Republicans.

"I have shaken the Democrats," Clement prophesied in the prophecy. "And will shake the Republicans even more. But remember, when these tremors and when these tumultuous moments happen, summer says, 'I will take it so that the fall can do its work in America'...for thus says the Lord, 'I will prosper My people.' And during the fall there shall be many that shall fall. And many that shall rise from the dust...strange July, hypnotic November, and oh Christmas where winter shall say, 'Oh me, I will make them happy.'"
