

Bald Eagles and Bad Moral Character

Did you know that Benjamin Franklin did not want the bald eagle named as the American symbol because it has a bad moral character? He wanted the wild turkey as the national bird. The bald eagle is a symbol of power and it does use this power to bully smaller birds to give up their food. But why do animals have bad moral character? {eoa}

David Rives Ministries () is a global Creation and Apologetics Ministry founded in 2007 and located in Lewisburg, TN. Producing faith-based documentaries and over 100 television programs, David Rives Ministries has an active following and social media presence, including their Facebook page:

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.