

Be Moved by Your Faith, Not Your Feelings

By clinging to the promises in 2 Peter 1:2-4, we can escape the corruption of this world. We accomplish this by clinging to these promises and siphoning the oil from these Scriptures. We are then escaping the corruption of this world and being transformed into the newness of life.

Don't hold onto your past or your feelings. Stop holding onto your thoughts and instead, hold onto the promises of God.

You enter through the blood and through faith. Every time I go into the presence of God, I am not worried about whether I feel something. I am not moved by my feelings; I am moved by the one in whom I believe.
