

Bestselling Author Stephen E. Strang Releasing New Book, 'God, Trump and COVID-19'

Author, Christian businessman and award-winning journalist Stephen E. Strang is releasing an extremely timely new book: God, Trump and COVID-19.

Strang's newest work, releasing mid-May in both e-book and paperback, comes on the heels of God, Trump and the 2020 Election, which stresses why the Christian vote will be so critical in 2020. Preordering is available now.

God, Trump and COVID-19: How the Pandemic Is Affecting Christians, the World and America's 2020 Election details how, just as the economy was booming and Donald Trump was fixing long-term problems and beating back attacks from his opponents, a brand-new virus shook up everything, including the outcome of the 2020 election. Strang shares inside information about what happened in China early in the pandemic and what went wrong around the world. He even documents day by day in the appendix what happened and how Donald Trump has led the nation in this time of crisis.

In God, Trump and COVID-19, Strang also discusses the ever-increasing stakes of the upcoming election. He seeks to answer the question, for both Christian believers and seekers, "Where is God in all of this?" God, Trump and COVID-19 also provides an unreported 1986 prophecy by the late David Wilkerson about a plague coming that would shut down the government as well as schools, churches, restaurants, bars and thousands of businesses—and would shake New York City as it's never been shaken. Wilkerson said this plague would force believers into radical prayer that will spark an awakening—something echoed by Christian leaders and prophets.

“In 2016, God raised up Donald Trump to lead America at a pivotal time. Evangelicals who recognized this backed him more than any other presidential candidate in history,” Strang says. “Heading into Election Day 2020, the stakes are even higher, especially with the uncertainty and upheaval caused by COVID-19. This book is really ‘part two’ of God, Trump and the 2020 Election, which details the fight for the soul of America. Christians need this continuation to fully realize all that’s at stake. For example, with the shutdown caused by the coronavirus, serious anti-Christian trends surfaced, such as some states closing ‘non-essential’ churches but allowing liquor stores to provide curbside service. Or ceasing all elective surgeries except abortion, which is the taking of a life while the purpose in shutting down the economy was to save lives from this dreaded virus.”

God, Trump and COVID-19 will be released by FrontLine, an imprint of Charisma House, which publishes books that challenge, encourage, teach and equip Christians.
