

Biden Calls 80 Million Patriots 'Terrorists' in White House Speech

It was supposed to be an event to honor the police on the White House lawn on a beautiful summer day, but it suddenly became a frontal assault on 80 million godly, patriotic Americans.

President Joe Biden squinted at the teleprompter as he read, "Folks, not even during the Civil War did insurrectionists breach the Capitol of the United States of America, the citadel of our democracy,"

"Not even then. But on January the sixth, 2021, they did," Biden continued. "They did. A mob of extremists and terrorists launched a violent and deadly assault on the people's house, on the sacred ritual to certify a free and fair election. It wasn't dissent; it wasn't debate. It wasn't democracy. It was insurrection. It was riot and mayhem. It was radical and chaotic, and it was unconstitutional and maybe, most important, it was fundamentally un-American."

Neither Ashli Babbitt nor Roseanne Boyland—two patriots who died on Jan. 6—was mentioned during the program.

For the first time, Biden crossed the red line of calling patriotic Americans "terrorists" while giving voice to the popular opinion that Capitol Police officer Brian Sicknick died in the Jan. 6 events at the Capitol. The official inquiry confirmed that Sicknick "suffered two strokes and died of natural causes a day after he confronted rioters at the Jan. 6 insurrection, the District's chief medical examiner has ruled," as reported by The Washington Post.

The Biden administration and mainstream media continue to ignore the real insurrection by Black Lives Matter Inc. and antifa, which lasted nearly a year, between May 26, 2020, and June 8, 2021, during which time numerous riots took place across the country. In addition, arson, vandalism and looting between those two dates were tabulated to have caused $1-2 billion in uninsured damages nationally, the highest recorded damage from civil disorder in U.S. history. This surpasses the record set during the 1992 Los Angeles riots, according to Axios.

Bestselling author of God and Cancel Culture Stephen Strang writes, "I came of age during the radical anti-Vietnam era in the late '60s ... we saw the same sort of street violence over the Vietnam War that we see today," reminiscent of the words of Jeremiah 9:3: "They bend their tongues like their bow; lies and not truth prevail upon the land; for they proceed from evil to evil, and they do not know Me, says the Lord.

Saul Alinsky, whose Rules for Radicals is the Bible for the current regime, laid out the "big lie" in Rule 12: "Pick the target, freeze it, personalize it, and polarize it. Cut off the support network and isolate the target from sympathy. Go after people and not institutions; people hurt faster than institutions. (This is cruel but very effective. Direct, personalized criticism and ridicule works.)" .

As Biden struggled to read the teleprompter set up in front of him on the White House lawn, chuckles mixed with gasps resounded from the crowd as the word "terrorist" was, for the first time, applied to the godly men and women of America.

Mike Lindell and other patriots ask believers to watch the Aug. 10-12 Cyber Symposium at as the godly 80 million begin to take back their country, vote by vote and state by state.
