

Bill Johnson's Life-Changing Vision About Mankind's Imperfections

Bethel Church Pastor Bill Johnson used to be disgusted with his own imperfections. He couldn't wait until He saw Jesus face to face and all of his earthly humanity would be swallowed up in God's glory.

But then God gave Johnson a vision during worship that changed his old way of viewing things—including himself.

"It changed something in my life," Johnson says. "That day, it changed, where I saw, 'Oh, He sees my humanity different than I do. He actually values it.'"

Watch the video to hear more about Johnson's mindset-changing vision.