

Billy Graham's 1952 Revival Sermon Was Prophetic

During a 1952 taping of Hour of Decision, Billy Graham said this about the need for revival:

"I'm absolutely convinced that no matter who's elected, America is not going to be saved unless we have a moral and spiritual revival ... no nation has ever improved morally without a revival."

He went on to talk about what causes revival and why it requires Christians to boldly live out their faith. Each word still holds truth today.
