

Bishop Harry Jackson: Standing for Righteousness and Justice

How do we handle social injustice or division in our nation?
How can we as a nation be more aware of how history impacts minorities in our country?

What are some principles we can put into play that will unite us together? How does righteousness and justice become a foundation during this crucial time?

During these tumultuous times in our country we need to be empowered and strengthened. Join Dr. Candice Smithyman and Bishop Harry Jackson as they discuss nine key points to foundational change in our culture through Bishop Harry Jackson Ministries' book, A Manifesto: Christian America's Contract with Minorities.
