

Black Millennials Want to Defund Planned Parenthood, because #BlackLivesMatter (Video)

A message from CounterCulturedUS:

Eric Gardner's life matters. Sandra Bland's life mattered! The 1867 black babies we abort everyday in the United States lives matter. If Black lives truly mattered – defund Planned Parenthood!

One of the young men in the video below reveals:

My birth mother could not take care of me, because she lived a life that was consumed with drugs and alcohol, and could not produce an environment that would be healthy to raise a child. She could have easily aborted me. Instead, she chose life. She chose adoption. And I was raised by two loving parents. Planned Parenthood tells African-American communities that it is acceptable to abort their baby instead of presenting adoption as a choice. They do not believe that "Black Lives Matter." I call upon the defunding of Planned Parenthood.
