

Blessed or Cursed

For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be cut off. –Psalm 37:22

God gave us clear directives for how He expects us to live. His laws are for our safety, security, and direction. Like any good father, God blesses us when we obey and corrects us when we stray.

Are you ready for the blessing and provision of God's abundance? There is only one door in which to place your key. Jesus said, "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture" (John 10:9). What are we promised when we walk through the door? Jesus tells us in the next verse: "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" ().

The blessing of God is promised for those who obey His Word. As you submit your life to His authority, He will bring you into the fullness of His abundant life.

Jesus, I am ready and willing to obey You. Open Your door for my life that I may walk into Your blessings and abundance. Amen.
