

Britney Spears Denounces God in Shocking Audio Clip

Britney Spears posted an audio message on Instagram denouncing her faith in God because of what she's been through in her life. "Like I said, God would not allow that to happen to me if a God existed," Spears said.

Speaking out for the first time in years during a "60 Minutes Australia" interview, Spears ex-husband Kevin Federline shares his side of the story following his public divorce with the superstar, and his fight to leave the limelight and raise their two boys.

Spears didn't take too well to the interview. In her public Instagram post which has since been re-shared on YouTube. She blames her family for her lack of faith in God. "I don't believe in God anymore because of the way my children and my family have treated me. There is nothing to believe anymore. I'm an atheist y'all," Spears says.

In 2008 after a mental break down, Spears father placed her under a conservatorship. The pop stars father was in charge of all financial matters and decisions in her daily life. For 13 years the conservatorship was in place until Nov. 2021.

In Spears message she bashed her family including her two sons Sean and Jayden who are 17 and 16-years-old. While the "60 Minutes" interview with Federline was for the most part positive, Spears claims they only say they want her to get better so she can continue to support them financially.

The star was upset Federline and their boys said they were praying for her, because she feels that prayer won't do any good.

It is heartbreaking that Spears is now identifying as an atheist and no longer wants anything to do with Jesus. This is why it is crucial for Christians to be grounded in the Bible. God isn't the issue here. God is perfect, holy and blameless.

There is a reason God has commanded us to live our lives in a way of purity and holiness. He ordains our steps. Psalm 139:16 says, "Your eyes saw me unformed, yet in Your book all my days were written, before any of them came into being."

When we decide to take our life into our own hands and live in sin, we open the door to the enemy to come in and steal, kill and destroy. People can't expect to live their life how they please and then blame God when everything falls apart.

Spears need truth spoken over her about the abundant love, mercy and grace of God. He is truly the only One who can fill her heart and heal her wounds. The body of Christ should pray that she encounters the love of Jesus in a radical way. When the storms come and your house is shaken, the Word that is written upon your heart is what will carry you. If you don't know what the Bible says, what do you have to stand on? {eoa}
