

Can a Demon Infiltrate a Believer's Soul?

"A Christian cannot be demon-possessed."

That's the first thing prophetic deliverance minister Kathy DeGraw says she wants Christians to know when they wage spiritual warfare.

But why is this so important to understand?

"Because we have the Holy Spirit, our spirit man cannot be filled with a demonic spirit," DeGraw says. "That is where the Holy Spirit resides."

The demonic can, however, infiltrate—or attack—a Christian's physical body or soul, which DeGraw describes as the mind, will and emotions. She says this knowledge is crucial in understanding the devil's tactics so you can defeat his strategies.

But how do Christians guard their bodies and souls from demonic oppression? Listen to DeGraw's teaching on this podcast to find out.
