

Candace Owens Discerns What's Behind the Kardashians: "Hollywood Is Satanic!"

Read time: 2 minutes 54 seconds

Daily Wire personality and podcaster Candace Owens recently discussed the increasingly revolting topics that pornographers are feeding to their followers. Namely, the rise in "incest porn" that has taken a spiritual hold over those already addicted to pornography.

This coincides with the recent allegations from Kim Kardashian's former partner, singer Ray J. He claimed that Kim and her mother, Kris Jenner, were both in on the distribution of the sex tape that helped launch the Kardashian family into notoriety.

Ray J said in an expletive-filled Instagram post that Kris Jenner not only knew about the video, but watched several and helped pick out which one to leak to the media.

Hearing those allegations, Candace Owens described the Kardashians, and Hollywood itself:

Ray J claims Kris Jenner watched AND hand-picked which sex tape Kim Kardashian would release!@RealCandace0: "It is not an exaggeration to say that Hollywood is satanic b/c what could possibly be more satanic than a mother viewing her daughter's body having sex & selling it?"

"There are really no words that can adequately describe how positively disgusted I am by the story," Owens said. "A mother sat down and decided to sell her daughter's body for fame and money, and she was successful," she charged, in shock that Jenner allegedly watched "various tapes of her daughter having sex with a boyfriend out of wedlock and then [said], 'Let's sell this tape, this is the best one, you look the best in this tape, this will make you the most famous.'"

"Not only is that disgusting, but then that her plan worked," Owens explained. "Kim Kardashian is a billionaire today, and she is, by the way, still selling sex."

And Owens is right. The path that Kris Jenner and her family took after her daughter's sex-tape came out gave them fame, fortune and power.

The family combined is worth over $2 billion. They are prominent staples at every fashion event they want to go to, every premiere they are inclined to attend and will be given any television show they want by any channel they choose.

But all of that is not worth the price their souls have paid for physical wealth. Owens went on to point out the problems that selling yourself for temporary fame has on a society:

"Kim Kardashian is a corpse; she's a body without a soul," she continued. "She is so emblematic of the society that we live in today, that if you are willing to degrade yourself, if you are willing to denigrate yourself, then our society, our American society will give you more.

"It is not an exaggeration to say that Hollywood is Satanic, because what could possibly be more Satanic than that?" Owens lamented. "What could possibly represent a more incestuous, if you will, relationship than a mother viewing her daughter's body having sex and selling it?"

As times move forward, Christians are seeing clearly in American society the effects of moral decay. Child drag shows, mothers pimping their daughters for fame and fortune and a government that is no longer for the people but a replacement for God.

Romans 3:23 explains that no one, not even Christians, are blameless. But by taking the word written by the apostle John in 1 John 1:5-10, the way of renewal is made clear. The road might be long and arduous, but the alternative is so much worse.

For the Kardashians and America's sake, Christians must engage in prayer themselves, for the lost and their country. Because the reward is greater than any can imagine. {eo}
