

Charismatic Faith Leaders Join Others for First-Ever Promise Keepers Global Digital Experience

Promise Keepers, the men's ministry founded in 1990 by coach Bill McCartney and known for its massive stadium events has announced additions to its already-expanded lineup for its 2020 Global Digital Experience, a massive online event which will be simulcast and live-streamed to men across the country and around the world July 31 and Aug. 1.

The two-day event will feature everything that men have come to expect from a Promise Keepers event: an authentic, Christ-centered experience with amazing keynote speakers, worship artists and special guests. Every element has been carefully assembled to produce a timely message of hope, unity and transformation that will empower men to bless their families, strengthen their churches, transform their communities and reignite a new generation.

The session topics provide the shot in the arm men are really in need of right now, including:

- Marriage and Restoration.

- Making Disciples.

- Seeking Justice.

- Building a Legacy.

- Fatherhood.

- Business.

–Finances.

–Dreaming Big.

–Powerful Prayer.
