

Charles Carrin Discusses the Power and Presence of the Holy Spirit

As sons and daughters in the kingdom, our thriving is directly connected to our ability to lean and depend on God. When we fix our hearts on the King of the kingdom, we remember that our keys to an abundant and whole life are in Christ.

A general in the faith, Papa Charles Carrin says about living Holy Spirit-filled lives, “Of ourselves, we cannot do it. Our own flesh trying to defend the flesh will never succeed. We are only going to succeed because the power of the Holy Spirit joins us in our march; joins us to the degree that we want Him and seek Him.”

“The church needs the power of God! I don’t care whether you’re a Baptist or Methodist or Presbyterian or what. Go beyond that and touch the fire. Experience the glory of the Holy Spirit!” Carrin shares in this Voices of Generals podcast episode of Kingdom Family Talks, titled The Power and Presence of the Holy Spirit. {eo}
