

Chip and Joanna Gaines Welcome a Son

Chip and Joanna Gaines of HGTV's Fixer Upper welcomed a son over the weekend.

"Our baby boy, Crew Gaines, is here and we couldn't be more in love. He made an unexpected (and speedy) entrance into the world two and a half weeks early—which is fitting given he was a sweet surprise from day one. Thank you for all your thoughts and prayers. We are so grateful," Joanna Gaines posted to Facebook.

The Christian couple shared precious photos on social media.

The couple announced last year they were stepping back from the spotlight to focus on family.
