Ginger Garrett | David C. Cook

The biblical story of Queen Esther is well-known. Because of her beauty, Esther is forced to leave her home to live in the palace of King Xerxes. When her people are threatened, Esther boldly faces the king. Her courage saved not only her life, but also an entire nation.

Ginger Garrett has created a contemporary account of this familiar story and tells it in a first-person, diary format. Her thoughts and experiences are interspersed with present-day news excerpts, showing how her story is woven into our own lives.

Garrett's unique telling of Esther's story will give readers a new understanding and perhaps an even greater appreciation for one of Scripture's beloved characters.
