

Christian Artist TAYA Reveals the Stories Behind Her Songs and First Album

As children of God, we get to walk intimately with Jesus in our everyday lives. He doesn't want to be involved only in the areas that seem spiritual, He wants all of us and longs to guide us daily.

As we make margin for Him in every season, He breaks in, molds us and propels us into His divine purposes. What God desires for every one of us is a holy partnership with His Spirit. The more we yield to Him, the greater the kingdom's reality becomes in our lives.

On the latest episode of Awaken Podcast with Michael Lombardo, I speak with Christian artist TAYA about her first solo album and the God stories behind the album and individual songs.

"It is a shame that as believers we settle for such little access to God," TAYA says as she challenges us to give everything to Jesus because He is worthy. Receive truth and encouragement!
