

Christian Leaders to Hold 'Prayer for the Nation' Event in Response to New Orleans Terrorist Attack

Sunday evening, Jan. 5, at 7-8 p.m. Eastern, Governor Jeff Landry, R-Louisiana, and Family Research Council President Tony Perkins, a Louisiana resident and former state representative, will co-host "Prayer for the Nation," a one-hour broadcast in response to the New Year's Day terrorist attack on New Orleans.

The event will include Christian leaders Michele Bachmann, dean, Regent University School of Government; Pastor Carter Conlon, general overseer, Times Square Church, New York City; Dr. David Goza, senior pastor, Jefferson Baptist Church, Baton Rouge, Louisiana; Pastor Jack Hibbs, senior pastor, Calvary Chapel Chino Hills, California; Troy Miller, president and CEO, National Religious Broadcasters; and Pastor Art Reyes, senior pastor, Calvary Chapel, Downey, California. Chaplain Mike Clark of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, who has been in New Orleans ministering to victims of the attack, will join the broadcast to pray.

"The terrorist attack on New Year's morning is a tragic reminder of the evil in this world that seeks to steal, kill, and destroy," Landry said in a statement. "We are thankful for the men and women in uniform who protect us; please join us in praying for their safety and their ability to thwart these heinous acts of terror. We also lift up the victims of this attack and their families.”
