

Christians Protest ‘Demonic’ Lady Gaga Concerts

(Reuters/Cheryl Ravelo)

A member from a Christian group holds a lighted candle while praying along a main street toward the concert arena where international singer Lady Gaga will perform Monday and Tuesday, in Manila Sunday. Conservative Christian groups in the Philippines marched near a shopping mall to demand the cancellation of Lady Gaga’s two concerts this week, saying her songs carried “demonic” undertones.