

Chuck Pierce: God Is Exposing Hidden Gold Veins—and Unholy Alliances

This Hebraic Year, 5777, is a year of gold. At the beginning of the year, I shared how we need to understand both its physical and spiritual significance. I have watched for how gold would be addressed in the news, and loved one of the Fox News headlines that came out earlier this week: “California Flooding Has Exposed Gold Veins Hidden for 200 Years!” The March 14th article by Michael Harthorne went on to say:

This winter’s flooding in Northern California has done more than bring relief after years of drought; it’s created the prospect of the best gold prospecting in 20 years. Gold hunters in the area tell the Chico Enterprise-Record the floods have “rearranged the rivers” and “moved things around.” That means gold veins that have been hidden for 200 years are suddenly exposed. According to CBS San Francisco, the floods also swept gold out of abandoned mines and washed it downriver. While KCRA reports that gold can simply be picked off the ground following major flooding, the best prospecting will come in the summer months when the water has receded.”

Vicki Nohrden of Wind and Fire Ministries reminded me of a prophecy I had released in San Jose, California on Sept. 13, 2012—Prophecy by Chuck Pierce:

The rivers of this state shall begin to fill, for this is a season that the heavens are shaking. In the midst of the heavens shaking, you are on the verge of the greatest breakthrough that you’ve ever know in the state. Do not back up! Do not back up! The rivers will now begin to fill and flood, and the rivers that have never contended will now begin to contend. There will be a divine splitting at places that you would not have thought that rivers would overflow and split.

There will be a splitting of what was joined together here in California. California will now unhook its unholy alliances. The rivers will rise and all unholy alliances will begin to split. The bitterness of the robbing of the gold and structure of resources in this state now will come to a head, and a new reconciliation will occur and a new glory arise. Along the main river system of this state there has been great contention, and great iniquity has been performed.

That which has caused demons to root in and hold this state captive will now be rooted out through worship. A new apostolic breed is arising through this state. There will be a great shaking in the north as a sign, and great splitting of the river system where it's never split before. In the midst of it you will know that which was rooted deep now has lost its control of this state; that which has ruled the heavens has lost its authority to rule. A whole new party structure will arise from this state that creates a new move throughout this land.

Do not back up! Do not back up when the rains begin to fall! I will send a sign upon this state that says the monetary structure will now change. I will cause My people who have rejected My move, and moved in My move up to the point of breakthrough and then backed off, to now arise as a kingdom people. The wind will not only blow, but the fire of God will come and this state will become a glory bed for My kingdom purposes. Let the visions come and the handshakes begin to let go. Begin to form new and form afresh!

Declare that California is being aligned in a new way! Wherever you live, welcome the outpouring of heaven into your region so that hidden veins can be uncovered for God's purposes to manifest in new ways! {eoa}
