

Chuck Pierce: Prophetic Power Shifts in the Era of War

What kinds of things will we see God move around during this prophetic era of war?

In a message to Glory of Zion International, prophetic voice Chuck Pierce discussed what the Lord is asking of His people during this era of war.

“This whole era is about how you speak,” Pierce says. “Without you learning to use your voice to advance, you’re not going to come into all that God has for you.”

Pierce points out that out of fear of failure or desiring perfection, Christians sell themselves short of what God has in store.

“You have to rehearse your blessings. Hell hates the thought that you have access to blessings,” he says. “You repeat the will of God for your life and it reshapes everything around you.”

This element of faith is especially crucial in a year like 2025, which Pierce points out will be a time of battle.

“This year, we are in a battle for the high places,” Pierce says. “You always have to use your faith key. In a year of speaking, in an era filled with prophesy according to our faith.”

This era of battle, when faith and prayer are key, aligns with prophetic voice Joseph Z's take on 2025, especially in regard to the first portion of the year.

"...I got a witness in my spirit that said, 'If we can go through quarter one and quarter two of this coming year without a nuclear incident, or even if there's a small nuclear incident we can still have the grace of God get us over that...if we get to July without a nuclear incident, without some of these things taking down the nation, I believe we're going to see the turn of the tide completely,'" Joseph Z told Charisma Media.

Let's pray for 2025 to be a year in which we get to see great, transformative and refreshing change for the body of Christ, that the Lord would go before us at all times and we would see a great victory happen.
