

Chuck Pierce: The Prophetic Significance of the Next 2 Years

In an interview on the Strang Report podcast with Charisma Media CEO and founder, Stephen Strang, prophetic voice Chuck Pierce warned Christians about what's heading our way for the remainder of 2024 and how this year will impact what we see coming by 2026.

"I think we could focus on Trump or we could focus on the party right now of the Democrats and how they've changed so much. But what I have tried to remain focused on especially this whole decade is the voice I'm hearing," Pierce says. "See, this decade is about what you hear and how you hear it."

Pierce says that we must stay in tune to listening for God's voice in a sea where so many people are trying to speak to us. The enemy will also seek out attention and try to be the loudest voice in the room, and we cannot fall prey by listening to him either.

Pierce mentioned how he had a prophetic vision where he was caught up into the heavens and saw the significance of Passover 2024 where God told him He would visit the nations. He also pointed out that God showed him back in 1986 that 2024 would be a pivotal year for the future trajectory of America.

"God showed me in 1986 that if we didn't shift by 2024, by 2026 our government would look very much like China's government, and I believe we have progressed directly toward that," says Pierce.

Back in 2020, Pierce wrote, "The Passover Prophecies," which was filled with deep prophetic implications. One of those implications happens to be the symbolic dream he had about parking a barge.

To order Chuck Pierce's "The Passover Prophecies," visit .

"I had this dream while I was writing this book, and it was about a barge being parked in the midst of other barges," Pierce says. "The first barge I could park. The second barge, the only way I could get it parked was through reverse imaging...I could, in the dream, determine how to use reverse imaging to go back, to get positioned. The communication war was one of the greatest I've ever seen."

Not only did this barge represent the political season that we are heading into, but unlike other election years, Pierce says that we are not in a season or a position this year to just let things work out on their own.

"Do not leave things just to work out this season; that is not going to help us," Pierce says. "I want to encourage you, we must listen and look carefully to what voice is coming out of our state, in our state, how is heaven ruling in our state? How are we in agreement or disagreement? Because that's what the Lord said we could do. He said we could bind or lose. That means we can unravel or we can put together. I say, we are going into a season these next six months to put together that which will rule our future."
