

CN Morning Rundown: Former Pop Star's 'All In' Commitment to Christ

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Former Pop Star Gets Baptized: 'Never Too Late' to Commit Life to Christ

A former member of the Pussycat Dolls recently got baptized and proclaimed, "God you are amazing!"

Kaya Jones posted on her Facebook page her testimony of the dedication of her life to the Lord. Her rocky past of singing with the pop group led her down a path of self-service. She was not serving God, Jones said. "I knew I wasn't following God's plan for me."

Before committing her life to Christ, much "damage & pain" came to her. Jones shared how just a year before signing with the Pussycat Dolls, she met Paula White-Cain, the pastor of City of Destiny Church in Apopka, Florida, whose ministry "sowed a seed" of faith in Jones' life when she was 16. Jones said in a recent interview that she jumped at the chance to publicly declare her faith when the ministry announced it would resume baptisms after COVID-19 caused a temporary pause.

Glean This Holy Spirit Power From Kingdom Generals of Old

Right now, we are in a critical time in human history. There is tension, chaos and deception all around us, and it is time for the church to arise and shine and release God's glorious light into the world at large. We are called to be the salt and light in a dark and hurting world.

The good news is that no darkness is too dim for God, and no sin is too deep for Him either. God is raising up a remnant of believers who will lay down their lives and spread the gospel by the power of the Spirit without shame or reservation. God's light has the greatest opportunity to shine in the darkest of times and when things seem the bleakest, He reveals Himself in profound and supernatural ways.

Franklin Graham Defends Meghan McCain's Stance on Biden, Abortion

The president of Samaritan's Purse and the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association has come to the defense of Meghan McCain after her comments regarding Biden's abortion stance dropped her in hot water on social media.

He commended McCain on Facebook Tuesday, saying he appreciates that The View co-host "isn't afraid to state the truth."

During a discussion on whether pro-choice Catholics, especially those in positions of power, should be allowed to receive Communion considering the denomination's stance on abortion, McCain said President Biden's views were not only illogical but could cause "deep spiritual harm" to both himself and the country.

Her claim that Biden would have to "ultimately have to talk to his creator when the time comes" and "reconcile his politics with his personal faith" caused a buzz on social media. {eo}

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.