

CN Morning Rundown: You May Not Realize it, but We're Bill and Hillary

Here's a quick summary of the top stories featured on :

We Are Bill and Hillary

I like Bill and Hillary.

Even though I disagree with everything they stand for, I like former President Bill and former Sen. Hillary Clinton.

In contrast to their public personas, they are kind, nice and so very different from the way they are so often portrayed.

I first met Bill Clinton in the strangest of places.

I was in New York for the yearly opening of the United Nations.

'Don't Fear Men, Fear God,' Canadian Pastor Tells Church After Serving 18 Days in Jail

After 17 nights and 18 days, Canadian Pastor Tim Stephens walked away from his Calgary, Alberta, Canada, jail cell and, with tears in his eyes, delivered a heartfelt sermon this past Sunday morning in which he urged congregants not to fear taking a stand for Christ.

Stephens was arrested June 14, 2021, after his underground church met for the second week in a row following the shutdown of its campus for violating province COVID-19 rules. He had previously been arrested May 16 and spent two nights in jail.

The Justice Centre for Constitutional Freedoms, which represented Stephens, announced his release July 1 along with the release of his church building, Fairview Baptist Church, from government seizure.

'We're Coming for Your Children:' San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus Faces Backlash for Threatening Video

Editor's Note: Because of the sensitive nature of their content, we have deliberately not included links to most of the tweets cited here.

The San Francisco Gay Men's Chorus faced a storm of social media backlash after posting a video it described as "ironic humor" about fears and concerns related to children and the gay agenda, per Fox News and other outlets.

"You think that we'll corrupt your kids, if our agenda goes unchecked/ Funny, just this once, you're correct," a soloist sings.

"We'll convert your children/ Happens bit by bit/ Quietly and subtly/ And you will barely notice it.

"You can keep them from disco/ Warn about San Francisco/ Make 'em wear pleated pants.

"We don't care. We'll convert your children. We'll make them tolerant and fair." {eo}
