

Controversial Activist Gets Christian Nurse Suspended

Is this nurse under fire by a Marxist agenda? How will you respond when they require your silence?

Unfortunately, many will be making the choice to be quiet or get fired. This nurse, who is a strong Christian, refuses to comply with the pressure of silence.

Is it possible that there are activists out there seeking an opportunity to get you fired over your values and viewpoints?

My guest on this episode knew that agenda-driven activists were out there but didn't expect they would come for her job by pressuring her employer to fire her.

Listen to the podcast and join the conversation as we seek answers to the question, "Is there an agenda to silence Christian conservative values in America?"

What will you do when they come for you? Will you be silent and submissive, or will you be like my guest and speak for the truth?
