

Country Superstar Carrie Underwood Thanks God for America, Posts Stunning Display of 1,800 US Flags

Country star Carrie Underwood is grateful for America and thankful to the Lord. She recently posted a viral video of her driving past a ton of American flags.

“I can’t believe I get to live here. Thank you, Lord,” she captioned the post, adding a few hashtags: #GodBlessAmerica #Grateful #TN.

Her patriotic post of gratitude comes as America is about to celebrate its 250th anniversary. WZTV Nashville reports the display of 1,800 American flags was put up by Semler Cattle Company near Underwood’s home in Tennessee.

And this is not the first time in recent memory that the country star has boldly supported America and the Christian Faith.

As a recent judge on American Idol, Underwood shared powerful encouragement for entertainers of faith in Hollywood.
