

Cross Stands Unharmed After Tornado Rips Through Texas Church: 'To God Be the Glory!'

The cross of a megachurch in North Dallas is still standing after a tornado ripped through the worship center on Sunday.

While no one was hurt during the tornado, Shea Sumlin, lead pastor of Northway Church, described the damage it caused as "catastrophic," adding he is thankful the storm didn't twist through the sanctuary during services just a few hours before.

There was one thing, though, that gave Sumlin comfort: The cross inside his church's worship center was still standing.
