

Crumbling Foundations

If the foundations be destroyed, what shall the righteous do?

–Psalm 11:3

Every day the world is witnessing murders of every kind in every country, as innocent people die needlessly from senseless crimes and terrorism. America is witnessing the assassination of the spiritual power and prowess of the body of Christ. We have sown to the wind, and we are now reaping the whirlwind. We have spent a generation raising irreverent children, training them to question authority at every level instead of teaching them that “to obey is better than to sacrifice” (1 Samuel 15:22).

Where are your children today? What is the condition of their spiritual lives? Where will they be five years from now if they continue on the path they are on now?

Hitler said what we teach our children will mold the nation. You cannot mold your children into what you want them to be, but you can help them become what God wants them to be.

Keep the foundations of our Christian heritage strong by giving your children the Rock of Jesus upon which to build their lives.

Jesus, give me wisdom in raising my children.
Put Your words on my lips and Your knowledge in my heart that my children might see You
in me. Amen.
