

Daniel Kolenda: Get Ready for the Greatest Harvest of Souls the World Has Ever Seen

Get ready for the greatest harvest of souls and nations that the world has ever seen.

Get your priorities straight, fix your focus on Jesus, forgive others, give Jesus the baggage you have been carrying, get active in a local church, help fund what God is doing around the world and burn brightly with the fire of the Holy Spirit so that you can be a part of the Great Harvest.

"Now is the season of harvest," announced Daniel Kolenda during the recent "Light the Fire Again 2022" revival rally by Christ for All Nations in Pensacola, Florida.

"We need to get back to seeking God, day and night, until ... we are blazing torches ourselves and the whole nation is burning with the fire of God," said Michael Brown, past president of the Brownsville Revival School of Ministry (BRSM). Between 1995 and 2000 an estimated 5 million people from around the world traveled to Pensacola to experience the outpouring when the fire was burning so brightly at the Brownsville Revival. Kolenda was a student at BRSM during Brown's tenure.

At the convention center in downtown Pensacola, Evangelist Todd White emphasized that to burn brightly as witnesses for Christ we need to seek to know Him rather than seek to get something from Him.

"Miracles are a by-product of knowing Him," he added.

Evangelist Jeri Hill recounted one way she carries the fire of God. She told the story of when she kissed the feet of a woman she met while sharing the love of Jesus on the streets. Hill said she still has the fire even though her husband, Evangelist Steve Hill, died in 2014 and her son was killed just eight months later. Evangelist Steve Hill is best known for being the evangelist who preached at the Brownsville Revival.

Evangelist Randy Clark said that modeling with consistency and integrity is essential because people are hurt and confused when they see a double-standard.

"God is moving, aligning and connecting people to fulfil His purpose," Clark says. "Revival historically breaks out during times of moral decay."

Calling attention to soul-winning being a lifestyle, evangelist and pastor Rodney Howard-Brown said, "If you are a soul-winner, the altar is wherever you are."

"I don't know about you but with the days that I've got left I want to run with that fire," said evangelist Nathan Morris. "I want to fix my life, my dreams, my home, my marriage, everything I have ... on the One who paid it all for me."

Evangelist John Arnott, who is the pastor of the church where revival broke out in Toronto, Canada, in 1994 said, "Toronto was just a warmup."

"Light the Fire Again" attendees immediately flooded the aisles and front of the auditorium in Pensacola when Argentina-based evangelist and pastor Claudio Freidzon shouted "Fuego! Fuego! Receive the Fire." His daughter Daniella Freidzon said that when the fire of God ignites your heart, a boldness that comes from the power of the Holy Spirit changes you forever.

One woman who attended the Brownsville Revival nearly every night told "Charisma" that while she was online streaming LTFA22, she experienced God's presence more than she had since Brownsville. {eoa}

During the Brownsville Revival, Renee Deloriea was the managing editor of the Brownsville Revival Magazine, a columnist for the Remnant Newspaper and a freelance writer for Charisma magazine. Since then, she has edited books and written articles for numerous media outlets. She lives in Nashville, TN.