

David Benham Offers Stark Warning Against Voting for Hillary Clinton

The Democratic National Convention enraged David Benham.

No Christian should want to associate with the “garbage” the party put forth, including repealing the Hyde and Helms amendments, the author and speaker says.

“If you call yourself a Christian, and you think you’re going to vote Democrat, that’s what you’re voting for,” Benham says. “Don’t associate with this kind of garbage.”

That “garbage” includes your tax dollars funding the murder of children.

Watch the video to see more.